The UGA SBDC Supports Atlanta Real Estate Company Through Coaching and Enhanced Infrastructure

Through her partnership with the University of Georgia Small Business Development Center (UGA SBDC), Labrescia “Breezy” Dawson has watched her real estate company’s earnings surpass $1 million, secured a government contract worth up to $1 billion and positioned her business for further innovation and adaptability.

“With the UGA SBDC’s help, my business is in the right place for growth,” Dawson said.

Dawson attended several classes with the UGA SBDC to find ways to improve her real estate company’s business operations. There, she met Donald Lamar, area director of the UGA SBDC at Morehouse College. It was the beginning of a fruitful partnership.

“I learn just as much from Breezy as she does from me,” Lamar said. “She’s committed to growing her business, committed to her vision and mission. She goes and gets herself equipped with the right training and resources to go forward. She’s a model all clients would be wise to follow. She’s very consistent, continuously adds value and is very successful in all her efforts.”

Smart ways to make a home comfortable, safe and a great fit for older adults — and people of all ages

What if a home could be suitable for any resident, of any age or physical ability? What if an older adult who wants to live independently despite changing abilities or evolving needs could do just that?

The AARP HomeFit Guide was created to help people live safely and comfortably in their home by enabling where they live to be a “lifelong home,” suitable for themselves and others in their household, no matter a person’s age or life stage.

The AARP HomeFit Guide can help individuals and families make their current or future residence age-friendly. In addition, elected officials, policymakers and local leaders can learn about and advocate for the types of housing features and designs that communities need so their residents can live safely and comfortably – and thrive.

Wild Georgia: A Plan For Tomorrow Cloudland Canyon

VARIOUS DATES AND TIMES THROUGHOUT 2025

Every year the Interpretive Rangers and part-time Naturalists at Georgia's State Parks and Historic Sites get assigned an annual theme that we base some of our programs and hikes around. This year's theme is 'Wild Georgia - A Plan For Tomorrow', and we'll be highlighting some of the plant and animal species across the state that are rare, threatened, or endangered. Here at Cloudland Canyon we'll put a special emphasis on species in those categories that you might find here in the park, or in this area of the state, and what is being done to conserve them.

Attendees to these programs at any state park can get a special bookmark which can be stamped by the park rangers conducting the programs. Attend four programs and you can send your bookmark off and receive a free gift! Here are the Wild Georgia programs that we have scheduled for March 2025. Consult our monthly Events Calendar for future dates and programs.

Dazzling Darters - Dive into the freshwater world of darters! We will explore the threats impacting populations and the conservation efforts to help protect these interesting and imperiled fish.
March 2, 8, 9, 15, 16, 22, 23, & 28. 10:00 AM. Duration = 1hr.

Flying to the Future - Eagles, hawks, falcons, and ravens are some of Georgia's largest birds, and among its most imperiled. Come learn about these and other large avians, and the efforts to slow their decline. March 5, 10, 14, 21, 27, & 30. 10:00 AM. Duration = 1hr.

Going... Going...Gone? - Many species of plants and animals in Georgia, including some in our park, are imperiled, or threatened. Come find out what they are, and what's being done to ensure their survival. March 6, 12, 19, 20 & 25. 10:00 AM. Duration = 1 hr.
